The instant application, for the court to appoint counsel to represent the plaintiff, is denied, without prejudice to its renewal, because, inter alia, the plaintiff has failed to demonstrate that he has made any effort to secure counsel to represent him. See Abukar v. Commissioner of Social Security, No. 07 CV 1770, 2007WL2729858, at *2 (C.C.D. Cal. Sept. 19, 2007).

In addition, the plaintiff is advised that all submissions to the Court must be sent to the Pro Se Office and not to chambers. Any submission must contain an affidavit indicating service was made on the defendants.

Dear Sir

In response to your information regarding the pretrial conference. I Vincent Hamilton have been informed by the superintendent of Cape Vincent Corr. Fac. that my pretrial conference will no longer be held on June 2, 2008 at 5:30pm in addition a new date has been scheduled, for June 16, 2008? also I will like to inform the courts that I am temporary in the box and it is very difficult for me to get specific information and documents, regarding my case. I also recognize that by me being in the box temporary that it may jeopardize my case, that I'm representing myself pro se so I believe that it's very beneficial that I'm inquiring from you and the courts legal representation. I will also like to apologize to the courts but I feel that this matter is very important that I take the right procedures.
